Message Reflections

Takeaway: We can offer God our unfinished stories, trusting that God is still working within them.

Questions:

1. Reflect on where Mary was in life in Luke 1:46-49. Her story isn't close to finished, and she still glorifies the Lord. What are you grateful for today as your own story continues to unfold?
2. In addition to Mary's story, Pastor Dave looked at how God was still working in the unfinished stories of Tamar, Ruth, and Abraham. Which of those three stories feels closest to your own right now, and why?
3. In Philippians 1:3-6, Paul looks back with gratitude and looks ahead with confidence. As you think about Westminster, what are some of the good works God already begun? What do you think about when you think about our future?

Help needed Sundays

- Ushers - Jerry Zimmerman
- AV Team - Kerby Langendorf
- Sunday School Teachers - Pastor Faith

The Listening Bench is a service of WPC Stephen Ministry team. It gives you the opportunity to talk to someone who will listen confidentially and not judge what you say. The listener will offer prayer if that is something that would help you. The Listening Bench is available after each worship service on Sunday mornings on our courtyard.

Meet our Stephen Ministers, the "After" people

Aubrey Grey, Kerby Langendorf, Nora Li, Leslie Robison, Kathy Spielman, Jo Zimmerman

Ask one of us, Pastor Dave, or Pastor Daryl, what Stephen Ministers do to help in hard times, or find one of us on the listening bench each Sunday, after worship, outside of the Fellowship Center.
